

Business Partner Innovation Center

Micro Strategies is proud to be one of a very select group of IBM certified Business Partner Innovation Centers (BPIC) worldwide

Micro Strategies' Business Partner Innovation Center (BPIC) showcases IBM solutions and services based on IBM products and related technologies, and is recognized as being on the technological forefront of IBM solutions for On Demand Business.

Our facility includes leading-edge technology demonstration capabilities and specialized solution specialties including Advanced Infrastructure, Business Applications, Enterprise Content Management, Business Systems Integration, Security and Voice Recording.

At our BPIC we demonstrate our proven implementation skills and expertise in creative problem solving, innovative services, and IBM technologies to deliver the right On Demand business solutions for our customers.

We're committed to delivering the highest level of proven customer satisfaction, measured by an IBM-selected independent survey company. Micro Strategies' BPIC is designed to educate clients on solutions built on IBM hardware and software.

Having been recognized by IBM for our high-end solution specialties, as well as completing a rigorous certification process, we provide our clients with these vital activities in our center:

- ☐ Solution design consultation
- ☐ Proof of concept for solutions and technologies, demonstrations and test drives
- ☐ Product installation and implementation assistance
- ☐ Client training, education and customized workshops

Let us demonstrate our commitment to delivering greater value, encouraging innovation and enabling your success in evolving to the next generation of on demand business and competitive advantage. Make an appointment to visit our IBM Business Partner Innovation Center today!
